A Volunteer Organization Dedicated to Community Service

Happy Valentine's Day to all!

February 2009 Newsletter

At our January meeting, the Education Department presented "What Should I Read Next" by our own Jane Cain, Director of the Pearl L. Crawford Library. Ms. Cain shared a wealth of resources, tips and ideas for narrowing the search for that next great read. Miss the meeting and want to learn more? Stop by the library where Ms. Cain and her knowledgeable staff will gladly assist in your search.

A big applause goes out to our members who donated children's books and DVDs for the library! Thanks to your generosity, our monthly service projects have touched the lives of many.

Please mark your calendars for the Dudley Woman's Club first annual Fashionista Fashion Show on March 15 at the Indian Ranch function hall. This event is not to be missed! Stein Mart stores will supply the fashions for our line up of models. You may see a local celebrity or two on the runway! Tickets will go on sale at our February meeting for $25 each, which includes the show, lunch and a host of vendors and prizes. Please see the attached flier for more detail. Proceeds will benefit the Woman's Club and our scholarship program.
