Greetings Ladies...

...And welcome to our 5th club year!

I hope your summer has provided many memorable moments to share at our annual Meet & Greet on Sept. 6 at member Nancy Vajcovec's lakefront home, 9 Cottage Road.

We will begin at 6:30 p.m. with social time followed by a business meeting at 7 p.m. Everyone is encouraged to bring a friend, your summer photos, a favorite appetizer or wine for an evening of good cheer.

A basket of cheer will be raffled so please do consider tucking a few dollars in your pocket. For more information, please contact Nancy at 508-943-4850.

SHEAR MADNESS

Boston's long-running comedy who-dun-it!

Our first group outing is a success with 32 tickets sold at $32 each. Gathering for a good time and great show has its rewards—Shear Madness is donating 25 percent of the ticket sales, or $256 to DWC! Interested attending? Call Maribeth at 508-864-8163 to arrange.

It's All About YOU! Health & Wellness Fair

6:30—8:30 p.m. November 7
Dudley Municipal Complex

Please join us for a fun and informative evening dedicated to the many facets of you, your health and well-being.

Offerings from the vendors confirmed to date include: vitamins & supplements, blood pressure checks, massage, fitness, healthy eating and organic gardening. Space is available for those interested in a table.

Free and Open to the Public

From Memorial Day through the fall each year, the heart-guided hands of DWC volunteers care for the eleven war memorial squares throughout town. They wash the winter-grime from monument stones, weed, plant and water the squares dedicated to those who served and fell for our country.

Our sincere gratitude goes out to this year's selfless volunteers: Pat Korch, Chris Bowser, Elaine Norowski, Lorna Wade, Nancy Vajcovec, Kristin Marengo, Maribeth Marzeotti, Diane Perry, Pam Holt, Elaine Gould and Alex Smith.
